

EXPLORE THE CAPITAL FROM THE LUXURIOUS APEX CITY OF LONDON HOTEL

A place to stay

The 209-bed Apex City of London Hotel can be found in the central location of Seething Lane – just minutes from Tower Hill Underground and Fenchurch Street Station.

Situated next to the medieval St Olave's Church, the city's rich cultural heritage is a stone's throw away.

The hotel comprises a range of double and family rooms as well as a collection of luxurious suites, each one featuring little finishing touches synonymous with Apex Hotels including Sky TV and Elemis toiletries.

Guests also have complimentary access to the hotel's 24-hour fitness studio.

A place to meet

Apex Hotels are renowned globally for their conferencing facilities and Apex City of London Hotel is no different.

Its modern conference centre can comfortably accommodate up to 80 delegates and this flexible space can be adapted to suit a multitude of requirements. The property also has an intimate meeting room that seats up to 40 people.

A place to eat

Due to open in September, The Lampery will serve a 'Best of British' menu that celebrates the diversity and eclecticism of today's British cuisine.

Named after one of Seething Lane's most illustrious former residents – navy worker and MP Samuel Pepys – the The Lampery encompasses a cocktail bar and terrace area looking out onto the Lane's green spaces.

The kitchen, led by Head Chef Edward Smith, will produce a range of signature dishes featuring the best of seasonal produce to provide diners with the most flavoursome options around.

The ultimate place to be

Bed and breakfast, based on two people sharing a City Room, starts at £165 when payment is made on booking.
